shall have pursued the required number of studies during the year, and shall have passed satisfactory examinations in the same.

RHETORICAL EXERCISES.

Compositions and Declamations, each twice a month, are required throughout the whole Course. During the last year and a half, the pieces spoken are original, and must be presented, before their delivery, to the Professor of Rhetoric for criticism. The advantage of attendance on the debates in Congress makes this department one of great value to the student.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are two Literary Societies formed by the students of the College, the Enosinian and the Philophrenian, which meet weekly at their halls for the purpose of improvement in Debate and Composition.

LIBRARIES.

The College Library contains about five thousand volumes, and is especially valuable in the Department of Theology. The Libraries of the Enosinian and Philophrenian Societies contain about three thousand volumes, principally in the departments of History and popular English Literature. The Libraries of Congress, and of the various departments of Government, are valuable auxiliaries to students.

LECTURES.

Courses of Lectures in various departments of Science, Art, and Literature can be secured at Washington; not only in College, but in connection with varied Associations, national and local, devoted to general culture, and furnishing peculiar facilities for information and improvement in every branch of liberal learning.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

Prayers, accompanied by the reading of the Scriptures, are offered daily in the College Chapel. All students are required to attend this service; and also some place of worship regularly on the Sabbath, the selection being left to themselves, or with their parents or guardian.

COMMENCEMENT AND EXAMINATIONS.

The College year, embracing nine months, is divided into two continuous terms. The first term commences on the third Wednesday in September, and continues to Friday preceding the second Monday in February. The second term commences on the second Monday in February, and ends with the Annual Commencement, which is held on the last Wednesday in June. Examinations, in all the studies pursued, are held immediately before the close of each term.

All students are also required during the first two years of their College Course, to pass examinations in the common branches of an English Education.

The Boarding department is presided over by the Principal of the Preparatory Department. Perishable articles of furniture, as crockery and glass, must be provided by students. Students from abroad, whose parents request it in writing, will be allowed to board in private families. In order to the cleanliness of the rooms, it is required that bedding, three pieces at least per week, be washed at the College laundry, at the charge of 75 cents per dozen.

Boarding clubs can be organized by students of limited means; a plain but substantial bill of fare being obtained at less price than can be offered at public or private table.

One-half of all bills must be paid at the opening, and the other half at the middle of the session. The previous settlement of bills is requisite to admission to recitations.

FACILITIES TO STUDENTS FOR THE MINISTRY.

It has ever been a leading object of the founders and liberal patrons of the College to furnish facilities to students having in view the Christian Ministry; and large numbers of candidates for that office, of various religious denominations, have received the advantages afforded to such students. It would be doing violence to the cherished hopes of those who have given nearly all the funds which the College now possesses, should this, their design, not be sacredly kept in view. Tuition will therefore be gratuitous to those of limited means who shall be recommended by the Faculty as worthy beneficiaries; and in special cases further facilities may be furnished.

GENERAL RULES OF DISCIPLINE.

The discipline of the College is designed for youth who desire to improve their time and are disposed to that order which is essential to this end.

On entering, each student is required to sign a pledge, on his honor, to obey all the laws of the Institution, so long as he shall remain a member it. After having received a certificate of matriculation from the President he must deposit a sum equal to one-half of all the annual College charges; and no student can be permitted to recite until he shall have satisfactorily arranged for his College bills. No abatement for absence, after admission, is made in the bill for board for less than one month, nor in any other College bill for less than one term, except in case of protracted illness. Every student is required to make choice of his studies immediately upon the commencement of the term, and punctually attend all the exercises pertaining to his course.

A merit-roll is kept and each recitation is noted, on the grade of from 0 to 10. Demerits are given for absences and for violation of College laws. The average of the merit-roll, including all absence from College exercises and all excuses granted, however reasonable, will be sent half-quarterly to the parents or guardians of the students. When any student has one hundred such marks for any one term, or one hundred and fifty for any one year, he must leave the Institution.

The recitations of the advanced Classes are brought into the early portion of the day; closing generally at one o'clock, P. M., and on Saturday at eleven o'clock, A. M. The advantages of an attendance upon Congress, and upon Lectures before various associations, are thus secured without detriment to proficiency in study. Any parent or guardian who desires a special privilege for his son or ward in this respect must signify it in writing to the Faculty.

All students are required to abstain from whatever is inconsistent with a due observance of the Sabbath, and regularly to attend, every Sabbath morning, such particular place of Divine Worship as may be chosen by themselves or by their parents or guardians. On Sabbath night they are expected to attend religious service at the College Chapel when such service shall be appointed. But any student may for sufficient reasons be excused by the President, or by one of the Professors, to attend, either morning or night, other places of worship.

All immorality in word or deed, and all ungentlemanly conduct are strictly forbidden. No student is allowed to attend the theatre, or any such place, or to visit any bar-room or similar establishment, or to visit any hotel but for special and adequate reasons. No student is allowed to have at his command any deadly weapon, or gunpowder, any cards or other means of gambling, or any intoxicating liquor.

Any student is entitled to an honorable dismissal at any time, according to his actual standing, provided his College bills are fully discharged, and provided, if a minor, he has the written sanction of his parent or guardian. Whenever a student can no longer cheerfully comply with College rules he is expected to comply with his pledge, and leave the Institution.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

INSTRUCTION AND DISCIPLINE.

The Preparatory Department is designed to afford a thorough preparation for the College Department. It also furnishes a High School Course, occupying two years, for pupils who have completed their studies in the common English branches, either in the public schools or elsewhere.

This Department is under the immediate supervision of the Faculty, and is subject to the College rules of discipline. The present number of classes is three; but for greater efficiency a fourth class will be organized next year. The Principal is aided in its care and instruction by the College Officers and by necessary Assistant Teachers.

The session commences on the second Wednesday of September, and closes on the last Wednesday in June. Monthly reports of the scholarship and deportment of the pupils are sent to parents; and they are requested always to communicate with the President of the College, or the Principal of the school, on receipt of the monthly reports.

It proposes at the same time to furnish the means of general study in collateral branches of a finished legal education, and also to give direction to the special studies of young men wishing to fit themselves for practice in any State of the American Union.

ADMISSION.

As the Course of Study demands maturity of mind, it is adapted either to graduates of Colleges or to those who have attained by study thorough discipline of their mental powers. Any, however, who desire are admitted to the Recitations and Lectures of the School, their graduation depending on their success in mastering the daily exercises and in passing the final examinations. No one is admitted as a candidate for graduation to the Senior Class who has not spent one year either at this or some other Law School, or performed a correspondent amount of study under some approved attorney.

SESSIONS.

The entire Course of Study embraces two years, beginning with the second Wednesday in October and closing the second Wednesday of June following. The exercises of the School are all held after the usual office hours, which close at 3 o'clock, thus giving to students the entire day for study, for reading in the public Libraries, and for attending the several Courts of the Capital, and at the same time enabling young men engaged in office duties to avail themselves of the facilities of the School.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

The School is divided into two classes, a Junior and Senior. Daily Recitations, in connection with Text Books, are conducted by the officers of Instruction, the Teachers giving a prelection or commentary on the appointed lesson, and questioning each pupil both on the text and comment. Students are desired to take notes of Lectures, and are expected to be prepared for examination by the Lecturer. The Course of Recitations embraces the important departments of Common Law and its Commentaries; of Criminal, Commercial, and Admiralty Jurisprudence; of Evidence and Pleading; and Equity Jurisprudence and Pleading. The Lectures relate to special topics, bearing directly on the Studies of the Class Room, or treat upon subsidiary branches essential to the comprehensive student.

TEXT BOOKS.

The best in each department will always be chosen. The following list, subject to revision, is at present the preferred selection:

FIRST YEAR OR JUNIOR COURSE.—Blackstone's Commentaries; Williams on Real Property; Williams on Personal Property; Chitty on Contracts; Byles on Bills; Kent's Commentaries.

SECOND YEAR OR SENIOR COURSE.—Stephen on Pleading; Starkie on Evidence; Adams' Equity; Story on the Law of Partnership.

CLUBS.

Associations composed of students of the school, formed for mutual improvement in the discussion of subjects connected with Law studies, and for practice in forensic debate, are encouraged. A Moot Court, also organized by the students, furnishes elementary experience in the practice of the lawyer's public duties. The Halls of the Law Building warmed and lighted, are free for the use of such Associations.

LIBRARIES.

The Library of the Law School will be furnished with all the important Text Books, Reports, and other Books of reference.

The unequalled collection of the Congressional Library is open during six hours of each day to all who wish to examine any authority, or to take notes from any book of reference, ancient or modern.

SPECIAL FACILITIES.

The City of Washington furnishes, beyond any other city of the Union, special facilities for the law student as well as for the general scholar. Besides the Local Courts, both Criminal and of Common Pleas, the sessions of the Federal Courts, both the Circuit and Supreme Courts, are invaluable for practical instruction to students. Besides these, the discussions on Patent Law, the deliberations of the Court of Claims, the frequent sessions of Military and Admiralty tribunals, and the debates on Constitutional and International Law in the Halls of Congress, form a combination of facilities, to one desirous of general improvement, such as no other city affords. In addition to these direct aids, the best Lectures on subsidiary topics can be secured from able men, in every department of legal science who resort to the Federal Capital.

EXAMINATION AND GRADUATION.

All candidates for graduation, besides the daily examinations of the Class Room, are required to pass a general examination, at the end of their course, on all the studies of the two years, in the presence of the Faculty or of such Committee as the Trustees of the College may appoint.

The degree of Bachelor of Laws is granted to students who, having passed both years of the prescribed course in the School, or who on presenting credentials of equivalent study in some Law College or office, and passing one year in the School, shall sustain satisfactory examinations in all the studies of both the Junior and Senior Classes. The degrees will be publicly conferred, either at the closing exercise of the session of the Law Department, or at the Annual Commencement of the Academical Department, on the fourth Wednesday in June.

EXPENSES.

The entire charge for Tuition, Lectures, use of Library and all facilities of the School, is eighty dollars for a single year, or one hundred and fifty dollars for two years. Students desiring to devote three years or more to the preparation for graduation, giving special attention also to the Subsidiary Lectures of the course, may have this privilege by payment of two hundred dollars for the entire course. Half year tickets of admission to Recitations and Lectures are issued on the second Wednesday in October and February, on payment of forty dollars in advance. Half year tickets to attendants on Lectures and other exercises of the School, who are not candidates for graduation or subjects of examination, are furnished at twenty dollars, invariably in advance. A charge of ten dollars is made for diplomas, and of five dollars for engrossed certificates of attainment. Students from abroad can obtain board at prices as reasonable as in any other city. Those preferring it can obtain rooms and board in the College at student's charges.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

LOCATION, TIME, AND PLAN.

The building of this Department, the gift of W. W. Corcoran, is located on H street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth Streets. The Annual Session begins on the first Monday of October, and ends on the first of March. The College Museum contains a rare and valuable collection. The regular Lectures are held in the latter portion of the day, affording the morning hours for study of Text Books, reading in Libraries, or practical Clinical instruction, for which ample opportunities are afforded. At the College, Medical and Surgical Clinics are held on Wednesdays and Saturdays. The Military and other General Hospitals furnish additional facilities.

TEXT BOOKS AND WORKS OF REFERENCE.

Anatomy.—Leidy's or Gray's Anatomy; Dalton's Physiology.

Materia Medica.—Riley's Dispensatory; Wood's or Stille's Therapeutics.

Surgery.—Druit's or Gross' Surgery; Paget's Surgical Pathology.

Obstetrics.—Ramsbotham's or Churchill's Midwifery; West or Condie on Diseases of Children.

Practice.—Wood's or Watson's Practice.

REQUISITES FOR GRADUATION.

Candidates for graduation are required to attend two full courses of Lectures from each Professor; or if from another school one such course; they must have dissected at least one session, and must deliver to the Dean of the Faculty an Inaugural Dissertation upon some medical subject thirty days before the close of the session, and must pass satisfactory examinations on all the Lectures of the Course.

Persons who have attended two full courses of Lectures in this school are entitled to attend succeeding courses free of expense. Graduates of other accredited Medical Colleges are required to matriculate only. Prior to the expiration of three years, the fee for a general ticket is $50.

EXPENSES.

Expenses of full course of Lectures by all the Professors.....	$135 00
Single Tickets	20 00
Practical Anatomy, by the Demonstrator.....	10 00
Matriculating Fee, payable only once.....	5 00
Graduating Expenses.....	30 00

No charge is made for Clinical Lectures. Payment of the fees is required in all cases, and tickets must be taken out at the commencement of the session. Remission or reduction of fees, and taking promissory notes from students, are forbidden by the By-Laws of the College.

The price of board, and of all other personal expenses, is as reasonable in Washington as in the other large cities of the Union.

ADVANTAGES OF LOCATION.

The location of the College at the seat of the National Government affords peculiar advantages to the medical student. At no other city in the country can there be found so large an amount of illustration of medical collateral branches of science freely and gratuitously open to the students.

The city of Washington is the centre of the medical organization of the Army of the United States, and it is the point at which the results gathered throughout the country are concentrated and put into a tangible and useful form. The Museum established by the Medical Department of the United States Army is now equal, if not superior, to any similar collection in the world. Its material has been obtained from a greater number of cases, and from a greater variety of climate, than that which has ever yet been brought together in one place in any country.

The Libraries of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution, and the Patent Office, enriched with rare and costly works in all the departments of science and literature, afford opportunities for the profitable employment of hours of leisure from professional study, which are seldom equalled anywhere.

THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

ORGANIZATION AND TERMS OF ADMISSION.

This department of Columbian College was a leading feature in the design of its founders. It proposes a course of study occupying two years. It is specially arranged for College graduates or those who have made kindred attainments in classical study and in mental discipline; but its instruction is also adapted to students of more limited intellectual preparation. Any young man of approved character is admitted to its recitations and lectures; but no one can receive its diploma who is not approved for the ministry by some evangelical Christian Church.

GENERAL THEOLOGICAL INSTRUCTION.

The department embraces four schools: First, Biblical Interpretation; second, Christian Theology; third, Church History; fourth, Ministerial Duties.

The first school, that of Biblical Interpretation furnishes instruction in the Hebrew of the Old and the Greek of the New Testament; Lectures on the Laws of Interpretation; and Lessons in the History, Analysis, and General Study of the English Scriptures.

The second school, that of Christian Theology, provides for lectures on the general connections of religious truth and of Christian doctrines; together with critical examinations of the best authors on special departments of Systematic Theology.

The third school, that of Church History, embraces lectures on the establishment, the extension, and the leading reforms in the Christian Church; together with readings from different authors on important eras in Ecclesiastical History.

The fourth school, that of Ministerial Duties, provides for studies in Sacred Rhetoric, for practice in the Pulpit Elocution and in the preparation of Sermons, and for lectures on Pastoral Offices.

SPECIAL DENOMINATIONAL TEACHING.

The general instruction common to all Theological Seminaries among evangelical Christians will be given by officers belonging to the College.

The discussion of controverted points of doctrine and practice will be restricted to special lectures or private teaching provided through pastors or other instructors approved among the denomination to which the students may severally belong.

PROVISION FOR EXPENSES OF STUDENTS.

The College will provide Tuition and Lecture Rooms free of charge to all who may desire to attend any or all of the courses of instruction. Board, room rent, and fuel may be obtained in the College at student's price or in the city. Special provision for aid in meeting these necessary expenses will be solicited from individual friends and Churches interested in education for the Christian ministry.

SESSIONS AND GRADUATION.

The sessions of the department will commence on the first Wednesday of October, and will close on Tuesday preceding the last Wednesday in June. Diplomas of graduation will be granted those passing satisfactory examinations on all the studies of the course, and certificates of attainment will be given to students proficient in any one or more schools.

ADVANTAGES OF LOCATION.

The general advantages afforded to all students at the Federal Metropolis, such as the privilege of hearing the most eminent speakers in every sphere of the public service, have proved of special value to former students for the ministry who have graduated at the College. The Library at the College is specially furnished with aids to students for the Christian ministry, and the Library of Congress, accessible daily to all who wish to consult its volumes, is furnished with a full collection of ancient and modern authors in the various departments of theological study.
